AboutAuthor Component with Fields and Styling:

The screenshot shows the CRXDE Lite interface. On the left, a file explorer shows the project structure with 'aboutauthor.html' selected. The main editor displays the following code:

```
1
2   <h1 class="book-title">${properties.name}</h1>
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10  ${properties.description}
11
12
13 <style>
14   .book-detail {
15     display: flex;
16     flex-direction: column;
17     align-items: center;
18     text-align: center;
19     max-width: 800px; /* Rectangular shape */
20     margin: 50px auto;
21     padding: 30px;
22     border: 3px solid #222;
```

Below the code editor, the 'Properties' tab is active, showing a table of component properties:

Contact page for author using “contact” Component with styling:

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying a contact page for Nicholas Sparks. The page has a teal header with the site name 'Nicholas Sparks' and navigation links: Home, Books, About Me, and Contact Me. The main content area is dark blue with a yellow border around the contact information. The contact details are as follows:

- CONTACT ME
- Location: New Bern, North Carolina, USA
- Email: info@nicholassparks.com
- Facebook: Nicholas Sparks
- Twitter: @NicholasSparks
- Instagram: @nicholassparks

The footer contains four sections: 'Books' (listing 'Counting Miracles', 'Dream Land', 'The Return', 'Every Breath', and 'Two By Two'), 'About Us' (a quote about Nicholas Sparks), 'Reach Me' (a quote about connecting with readers), and 'Follow Us' (social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram).

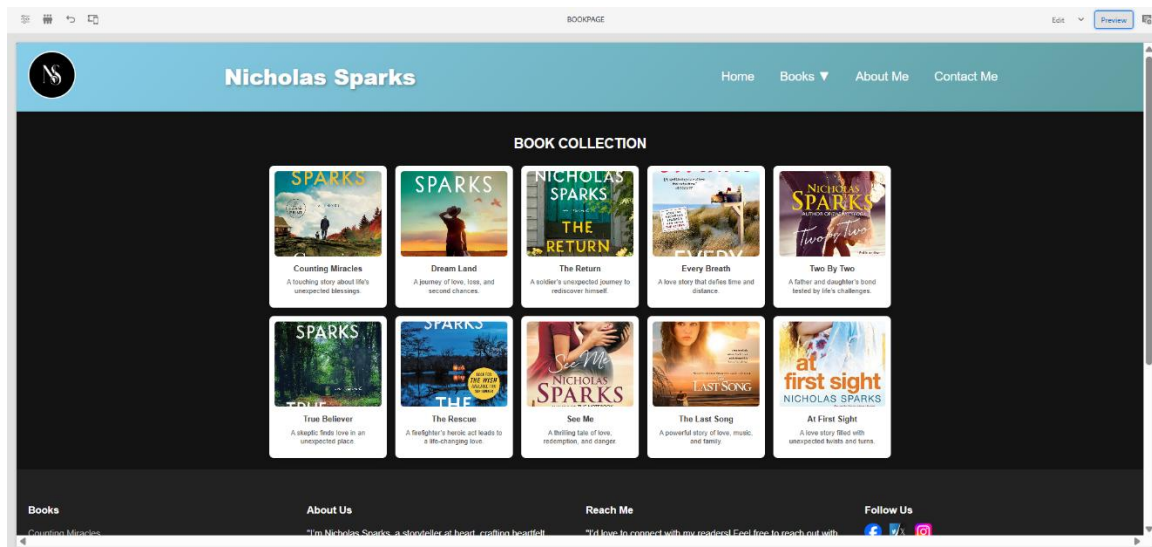

Clicking the link from contact it redirect to the author's social media page:
